

Ana M. Cunill

Ana Cunill is a principal within the firm's Tax and Business Services division. She has more than 16 years of professional experience providing accounting and tax services, tax planning and advice for individuals and businesses in a wide range of industries. Her areas of concentration also include taxation and accounting of private foundations and guardianship accounting for various county courts in Florida. She also represents her clients on tax matters before the IRS.

Ms. Cunill leads Rachlin's Accounting Services and Compilation group. This team of 10 professionals handles the preparation and review of OCBOA and no-disclosure financials, financial statements, agreed-upon procedures and court accountings.

Ms. Cunill directs in-house training seminars for her team as well as other professionals within the firm. Her emphasis is on maintaining Rachlin at the forefront of new technology as well as ensuring that all staff is up to date on the latest changes to tax laws.

Professional & Civic Affiliations

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA)

Articles, Seminars & Lectures

Women's Fund of Miami-Dade County, Speaker
Internal CPE training, Instructor

Ana M. Cunill, CPA
Principal

PROFILE

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Accounting Services
Advisory Services
Tax Planning & Compliance
Tax Research
IRS Representation

KEY CLIENTS

High-Net-Worth Individuals
Closely Held Companies
Real Estate Companies
Small Businesses
Service Industries
Professional Service Organizations.
Private Foundations

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Taxation
Florida International University

Bachelor of Science in Accounting
Florida International University

